Exhibition Opportunities 2025

Solo Show Program

Open to all artists, the Solo Show Program offers an exhibition schedule of small, eight week long shows of varying sizes and exhibition fees, all with a low commission taken by the gallery to process sales. The Solo Show Program offers full spaces as well as individual walls. Some of the same spaces are occupied by the Working Artist Program, each being available to fill as needed.

- square footage and linear feet vary
- 8 weeks
- all sales processed by the gallery at 20% commission
- exhibition fees vary and are for an 8 week show

Working Artist Program

Open to all artists, the Working Artist Program provides a self-curated exhibition and work space with a range of affordable monthly exhibition fees and flexible predetermined lengths of time. Artists provide their own studio furniture, tools and supplies. Artists processing their own sales pay no commission to the gallery. Sales processed through the gallery pay the gallery and the assisting artist a small commission. The Working Artist Program occupies some of the same spaces as the Solo Show Program, each being available to fill as needed.

- square footage and linear feet vary
- 4 weeks minimum
- sales processed by the artist at 0%, processed by the gallery at 20% commission
- exhibition fees vary and are per 4 weeks

Artist Representation

Open to all artists, Artist Representation is a yearly promotional agreement with a signing fee. Representation offers artwork consignment listed on individual artist pages on canalstreetartgallery.com. Represented Artists are included in the gallery's once-a-year New Work show, access to the Touring Exhibitions Program, and 50% off exhibition fees for the Solo Show Program.

- yearly promotion and consignment from artists studio
- signing fee $360
- all sales on work consigned to the gallery 20% commission
