The 6th Annual Vermont Summer Group Show brings new artwork to Bellows Falls from local and regional artists. The exhibit is one of the gallery's yearly open calls to artists. The show presents artworks in all mediums, styles, and subject matters to celebrate the diversity and abundance of art here in Southern Vermont.

This year, the public is invited to participate in the voting process for awards given to three artworks in the show. Votes for favorite artworks are cast by in-person ballot at the gallery. The three artworks in the show with the top amount of votes will receive the following prizes. For third place, the artwork will be included in one of the gallery's regular hanging displays at the Hartford, and Guilford, Vermont welcome centers, typically including represented artists. The second place artwork's creating artist will receive a place in the 2024 Art For All Seasonal Group Show, exhibiting up to five artworks, a value of $55 for the exhibition fee. The artist earning first place will be awarded a guest solo spotlight show at Canal Street Art Gallery, to be scheduled in 2025, a value of $150 for the exhibition fee.
